MANY CANDIDATES FOR COUNCIL AT THE WIRE AT BELL TAP

Opposition in Councilmatic Race In Every Ward But the First—Interesting Fight Is Expected In Some of the Districts of the City.

Monday night was the last night for the filing of petitions for candidates for City Councilman in the various wards of the city. Those who failed to file their petitions on Monday cannot have their names appear on the official ballot.

For some time it appeared as if this race this year would be very uninteresting many wards having no opposition whatever to the first two candidates announced but when the bell was tapped Monday evening, it was found that there were more than two candidates in the race from every ward except the first where John W. Eltel and C. F. Reed have an open seat and a calm.

The race as it is finally fixed for the big run of the next two weeks lines up as follows:

First Ward—John W. Eltel and C. F. Reed.

Second Ward—A. Clooney, James Stewart, Nace Brady and William R. Smith.

Third Ward—James Purdon, Dr. Alan Dodson and Ross Owens.

Fourth Ward—Chris Brown, W. C. Watkins and William Weis.

Fifth Ward—George W. Royse, Chas. B. Davis and George Fisher.

Sixth Ward—Sherman Arn, Frank G. Hunsicker and C. K. Daulton.

MUSICAL DELIGHTS LOCAL AUDIENCE MONDAY NIGHT

Maysville Musical Season Is Opened By the Appearance Here of Two World Famous Artists.

There was a very good audience at the Washington Monday evening to hear the voices of Barbara Maurel, famous French mezzo-Soprano, and Oscar Seagle, American Baritone. Both artists pleased the audience with their beautiful renditions of many attractive and difficult numbers.

Miss Maurel's voice was at its best and whether in French or English she pleased.

Mr. Seagle made a decided hit with the Maysville people. He has a baritone voice the like of which has not before been heard in Maysville. His renditions of the Negro Spirituals was especially pleasing while he and Miss Maurel sang well in duets.

Franklin Briston, II., at the piano, was also an artist deserving special mention. Many lovers and students of music were heard to remark as they left the Opera House that Mr. Briston's accompaniment was one of the biggest features of the program.

The first number in the series was indeed a wonderful success and there is no doubt but that there will be many more hear the remaining numbers of the series.

ED. MORROW SPEAKS AT COURT HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Republican candidate for Governor, Kentucky's Greatest Orator, Will Address Maysville and Mason County Audience Wednesday Night.

Hon. Edwin P. Morrow, of Somerset, the Republican nominee for Governor of Kentucky, will be in Maysville tonight and tomorrow night will address an audience at the County Court House at 7 o'clock.

There have been few announcements made in Mason county in recent years that has caused the interest that the announcement made a few days ago in regard to Ed. Morrow's appearance here has caused. Mr. Morrow is not only recognized as an orator of unusual merit but Mason county is filled with warm friends of the candidate and he is going to receive strong support from these friends and admirers in the November election.

People are coming to Maysville Wednesday night from all sections of Mason county and from adjoining counties to hear this brilliant young man present his arguments as to why he should be elected to the highest office in the state this year. Mr. Morrow is expected to explain away many of the false reports that have been circulated in various parts of the state in regard to him and will also tell many interesting facts about the administration now in control in Kentucky which is headed by the candidate for governor on the Democratic ticket.

A considerable change in prices in all local Union Barber Shops may go into effect within a short time if a resolution revising the present scale of prices introduced by Mr. Stanley Cullen at the meeting of the Barber Union last night, is adopted at the next regular monthly meeting.

The new scale proposes the following increases:

	New Price	Present Price
Shave	20c	15c
Haircut	.40c	35c
Oil Shampoo	.75c	35c
Shampoo	.40c	35c
Massage	.40c	35c
Hair singe	.40c	35c
Beard trim	.20c	15c
Head shave	.25c	15c

The new schedule also provides that all union barber shops shall close at 7 o'clock each evening instead of at 8 o'clock as at present.

Local barbers set out that the proposed new scale of prices is now in effect in all cities and towns in this community and that Maysville barbers on account of the high cost of living are entitled to this new increase in prices. The scale will be finally voted on at the November meeting of the local union.

TREATY READING IS NOW FINISHED BY U. S. CONGRESS

Reservations Are Being Drafted and Peace Pact Fight Will Soon End.

Washington, October 21.—Members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today were drafting reservations to the peace treaty, as they will appear in the resolutions to the peace treaty, as they will appear in the resolutions to the peace treaty, as they will appear in the resolution of ratification.

With formal reading of the treaty completed, action on the pact is expected to move more swiftly. The Johnson and Moses amendment were before the Senate today.

No action is expected before tomorrow or Thursday on the former.

Republicans are said to be practically agreed on the text of the reservations, including one covering the recently defeated Shanung amendment. This reservation would declare that the United States received complete freedom of action with respect to disputes arising between China and Japan, over Shantung.

The pending Johnson amendment if lost, will be touched on in a reservation, which would retain to the United States the right to object to any league vote, in which any empire cast, through its dominions, more than one vote.

The reservation covering Article 10 would allow the United States to take action to preserve the territorial integrity or political independence of any league member only after Congress had acted in constitutional manner.

Reservations regarding the Monroe doctrine, right of withdrawal from the league and control over domestic issues, stand as planned some time ago.

FOUR ARE KILLED WHEN TRAINS CRASH

Elevated Trains in New York Crash at Early Hour This Morning and Many Are Injured.

New York, October 21.—Four persons were killed and many injured in a collision on the Third Avenue elevated line at Third Avenue and 174th street early today.

A northbound local train crashed into the rear end of another local. The front car of one train telescoped the last car of the other train. The passengers on both trains were hurled from their seats. Police reserves and ambulances were rushed to the scene. Both the trains were crowded with workers going to the upper Bronx. The trains caught fire after the crash. Firemen ran ladders up to the track and assisted in taking passengers from the cars.

One report of the cause of the crash said that the rails were slippery and the brakes on the rear train failed to work.

Irving Boyd, motorman of the rear train, was placed under arrest at the hospital, where he was taken, suffering from internal injuries.

CAMPAIGN FOR FUNDS TO FINANCE CLUBS WELL AS STATE WORK

Meeting to Be Held This Evening to Lay Plans For Campaign For Funds to Establish Boys' Club and to Help State Y.

M. C. A. Work.

At the meeting to be held this evening at the Chamber of Commerce building, the matter of a campaign in Mason county for funds for the Y. M. C. A. work in the state of Kentucky and in conjunction with a campaign for funds to finance a Boys' Club room and gymnasium will be discussed, it is learned.

The matter of establishing a Boys' Club room and gymnasium in Maysville or the use of Mason county and Maysville men and boys, is being backed by the Mason County Red Triangle committee and the Y. M. C. A. forces of the state of Kentucky and it has been suggested that when a campaign for state Y. M. C. A. work is started in Mason county, would be a good time to canvass for funds for the local club room.

THE SIN OF OVER-EATING

"Pray, Mr. Abernethy, what is a cure for gout?" was the question of an indolent and luxurious citizen.

"Live upon sixpence a day, and earn it," was the cogent reply.

John Abernethy, second son of Scotch-Irish family, born April 3, 1764, a physician of rare discernment, a surgeon of great skill, a lecturer, and teach of dramatic magnetism, never said a better thing in his life.

It is particularly apt in this country where the sin of over-eating is far more common than the sin of over-drinking.

Gluttony, always a fault, is all the more glaring in a land where a plentiful food supply permits it to be more general.

The shallow, fat cheeks, the aching joints and irascible temper of the prosperous over-fed are far too common.

Abernethy said to one such, the Duke of York, by the way, "Cut off the supplies as the Duke of Wellington did in his campaigns, and the enemy will leave the citadel."

Diet, however, is a really serious matter and many people suffer as much from dietary eccentricities and food fads as from actual disease.

The average individual can eat good, plain wholesome food in moderation all his life without ever being aware that he has digestive apparatus.

Starvation to cure a fancied ailment or to reduce an expansive waist line has shortened many lives, just as indiscretion in the opposite direction.

Certain diseases do require a particular diet, but this should be chosen by a physician of skill and not self-prescribed.

The self-preacher often has a fool for a patient.

Abernethy was married on January 9, 1800, to a lady whom he met at the house of a patient. A brief courtship was followed by a proposal deprecating any "dangling". He was not as temperate with regard to work as he was to food. He did not even interrupt his lectures for his wedding, and died at the age of 67, completely worn out, a victim of his gluttony for work.

CENSUS HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH TAXES

RELIEF IN THE SUGAR SHORTAGE NOVEMBER 1st

Householders Likely to Have Plenty
But Soft Drink Places and Manufacturers Will Have Trouble.

Relief from the sugar shortage is expected by Nov. 1, it was stated Saturday night by a prominent wholesale grocer, who expects by that time large quantities of beet sugar will be on the market. Most refineries will start handling the beet product by that time, it is thought.

Although there is expected to be plenty of sugar for household use, there will likely be a shortage experienced by soft drink places and manufacturers where considerable sugar is required. Since prohibition went into effect the demand for soft drinks has increased many times, resulting in a large increase in the amount of sugar used.

The shortage of cane sugar is still very serious and grocers have found it necessary to limit the amount each household may purchase. Wholesale dealers are limiting their sales to 100 pounds in most instances, although in some cases when the product comes in barrels, exceptionally good customers are allowed one barrel.

The shortage is attributed to two reasons. One of them is that the price fixed for sugar for use in the United States is considerably lower than for export and refineries have preferred to ship their product abroad at the higher figure. The other reason is that some people have become frightened by the shortage and hoarded up large amounts.

Try a Ledger Want Ad. It Pays.

Actual work by the enumerators in the various census districts will begin on January 2, 1920. It is expected that the population statistics of all cities and towns will be gathered in approximately two weeks. Final figures for rural districts, however, can hardly be gathered in less than a month.

WANTS CHILDREN TO HELP BUILD ORPHANS HOME

Superintendent Gilbert Makes Plan
School Children and Praises Plan
For $300,000 Campaign.

"A home built for children without homes by children with homes appeals to me more than any other proposition I have ever heard," stated V. O. Gilbert, State Superintendent of Schools, in a letter to the teachers of Kentucky regarding the $300,000 drive in the five-day campaign beginning October 27 for a new home to be built for the Kentucky Children's Home Society on a farm ten miles from Louisville.

"I feel that the teachers will see that not only their apportionment is raised," continued Superintendent Gilbert, "but a large amount so that the Kentucky Children's Home Society will have the most up-to-date home in the nation."

The success of the campaign depends upon the teacher, said George H. Sehon, superintendent of the Kentucky Children's Home Society, and it is vitally important for the teacher to begin at once without waiting for urging from the county superintendent.

In connection with this, State Superintendent of Schools Gilbert adds that county superintendents are often too busy to enter personally into the campaign and urges them to take the initiative in the matter.

"I want to see the teachers themselves take hold of the matter and push it through to the great success it deserves. Many of the prominent people over the State who would be willing to take hold and direct the campaign in their locality are busily taking part in the political campaign," said Superintendent Gilbert. "Here is a chance for teachers over the State to show their initiative and qualities of leadership and management in their schools and communities."

Fall and Winter Brings on Aches and Pains

The new home, which will be built after the campaign, will be a group of cottages on a farm ten miles from Louisville, near St. Matthews. This will provide wholesome surroundings for the children, and the duties connected with the management of the farm will give vocational training to the older children in the care of the Kentucky Children's Home Society.

"It is not only a good, charitable cause, but a sound business investment," said Mr. Sehon. "Instead of the constant yearly drain to provide for the Kentucky children that come into our care, we will have fifty acres of ground upon which to raise provisions, which will more than pay for the cost of food supplies. The Odd Fellows' Home at Eminence, Ky., which cultivates thirty-seven acres, raises more food than is consumed, and there is a surplus to apply on other expenditures."

LIST OF PRESENTS GIVEN PRESIDENT HAS DOUBLED

Although Report Said Car Was Required to Carry Wilson's Presents, Tumulty Records Only a Few.

Joe Tumulty, Secretary to the President, has made public an itemized statement of the presents received by President Wilson while abroad, and to judge from Joe's list they could all be carried in a bushel basket, although it was repeatedly announced, and until now, never denied, that the presents made up a carload which was billed to the White House. Tumulty declares it had been the President's purpose to ask the permission of Congress to retain these presents, in view of the Constitutional inhibition of an American official against receiving gifts from foreign governments, so it is probable that Mr. Wilson did not consider this infraction of the Constitution of sufficient importance to take prompt action in communicating to Congress with respect to it. The report was brought about through the resolution of Representative Rodenberg, of Illinois.

Regardless of the accuracy or inaccuracy of Tumulty's inventory, it was not the mere receiving of the presents which created criticism; it was the fact that they were received in spite of the Constitutional provision forbidding such a thing, and more than all that the general contempt in which our charter has been held by the Administration. Back in 1830, President Andrew Jackson, with whom President Wilson has often been compared, transmitted a message directed to both the House and Senate, which contained this paragraph:

"The accompanying gold medal, commemorative of the delivery of the Liberator President of the Republic of Columbia from the daggers of assassins, on the night of the 25th of September last, has been offered for my acceptance by that Government. The respect which I entertain, as well for the character of the Liberator President as for the people and Government over which he presides, renders this mark of their regard most gratifying to my feelings; but I am prevented from complying with their wishes by the provision of our Constitution forbidding the acceptance of presents from a foreign state by officers of the United States; and it is, therefore, placed at the disposal of Congress."

This message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, and they reported out a resolution on which was agreed to: "Resolved, That the medal recently offered to the acceptance of the President of the United States by the President Liberator of Columbia be deposited by the clerk in the Department of State." When General Grant returned from his tour of the world, the presents which were made to him were promptly deposited in the National Museum, where they can be seen to this day, and similar disposition should be made of those received by Mr. Wilson.

Here's a Maysville case; Maysville testimony.

Kidney sufferers hereabouts should read it.

Miss Dora Edgington, Wood St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and from the results received, I have every reason to recommend them. At times my kidneys have become weak and have been irregular in action. My back has ached, too, and has been very weak and lame across my kidneys. When I have used Doan's Kidney Pills for this trouble, they have never failed to relieve the complaint in a short time. I gladly advise anyone to get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Chanslor's Drug Store, if troubled in that way."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Miss Edgington had. Foster-Millburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

$500 OFFERED KY. SCHOOL CHILDREN IN ESSAY CONTEST

Kentucky Tuberculosis Association Offers Prizes For Essays on Health Topics.

The Kentucky Tuberculosis Association desires that every child shall think more about health and shall know how to be healthy.

It asks that every child shall study about health and then write a composition about it.

The primary purpose of the essay is to enable the child to formulate a few simple health laws which he may consciously use himself, and also may pass them on to others.

Prizes will be awarded for the best essay written on the following subjects:

Sixth Grade—The Life History of the Common House Fly.

Seventh Grade—Is the Public Health Nurse a Necessity or a Luxury?

Eighth Grade—If You Have Tuberculosis, How May You Cure? How May You Prevent Others From Taking It?

Ninth and Tenth Grades—What Does the Modern Health Crusade Mean?

Eleventh and Twelfth Grades—Why Should I Buy Red Cross Christmas Seals?

We recommend the following book and bulletins for reading before trying to write the essay (all furnished free):

"Health and Sanitation Through the Public Schools of Kentucky" (Department of Education, Frankfort, Ky.)

"Bulletin on Tuberculosis" (State Board of Health, Louisville, Ky.)

"Modern Health Crusade; and, Red Cross Christmas Seals" (Mr. Chas. M. DeForest, 381 Fourth Avenue, New York City.)

"Bulletin on Files" (Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, Paul Jones Building, Louisville, Ky.; also, International Harvester Company, Chicago, Ill.)

Who Are Eligible

Pupils in all public, private and parochial schools in the State whose academic qualifications place them in the Sixth Grade or above as measured by the State Course of Study.

TERMS OF THE CONTEST ESSAY

No essay shall contain more than one thousand words.

It shall be written on one side of the paper, in ink, by the child submitting it.

It shall be folded neatly and on the back a record of the following information made by the teacher:

1. Grade VI, VII, etc.

2. Subject.

3. Name and post-office address of writer.

4. Teacher's name.

5. Rating, decided by judges.

Clearness of conception of the health problem and its solution will be the chief considerations in awarding the prizes.

The three prize essays in each school shall be read by the pupils who wrote them to an assembly consisting of the school and invited guests on Friday afternoon, November 21, 1919.

The local teacher shall then send the three essays from each grade to the County School Superintendent to be entered in the County Contest.

The judges selected by the County School Superintendent will read all essays submitted to them and choose the three from each grade which seem most pertinently to solve the problem discussed. These the County Superintendent will send to the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, 509 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky., by December 15, 1919, to be entered in the State Contest.

Here the judges selected by the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association will choose the prize essays.

JUDGES

The superintendent, or principal, or some one named by him shall act as judge in the school contest.

The County School Superintendent shall choose three judges to read all essays submitted from the county.

These judges shall choose the three essays from each grade which seem most pertinently to solve the problem discussed. They shall mark them first, second and third and return them to the County Superintendent, who will send them to the Kentucky Tuberculosis Association, 509 Republic Building, Louisville, Ky., before December 15, 1919.

The Kentucky Tuberculosis Association shall name three judges who will read all the essays submitted and choose the three, which most pertinently solve the problem discussed. As this is a health rather than an English contest, the judges will evaluate the essays on the basis of content rather than form.

The three essays chosen from each grade by the State Judges will be awarded the prizes named below by February 1, 1920.

BIG MINSTREL SHOW IN FIRST APPEARANCE TONIGHT

Great Home Talent Show Will Be the Attraction at the Washington Opera House Tonight.

The final rehearsal for the Terpsichorean Minstrels to be given at the Washington Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, October 21-22, was held last night, and all indications point to a banner production both from an artistic and financial standpoint.

The show itself is one continual scream from curtain to curtain and the local boys, in the ten days they have been rehearsing, have developed into actors, displaying real professional talent, under the supervision of Gov. Bowen, who has been with the leading Minstrel Organizations for the past twenty years.

Enough cannot be said for the gorgeousness of the scenery and costumes which represent a vast output of money.

Among the features of the show are "The Terpsichorean String and Vocal Octette" and "Chas. Bramble in a monologue."

A street parade will be given each day of the show at 4 p.m. for which the Boys' Band of Maysville will furnish the music.

The Band will also give a concert in front of the Theater just before the show.

There are some good seats left but they are selling rapidly.
